- 1. Military barracks are located on Ul. Czyzowska/ arszawska in Zambrow (R 53/F 87), ________/ As of December 1952 the buildings on the right side of the road loading to Czyzowa housed commissioned and noncommissioned officers. On the left side of the road in an area about 12 kilometers long and 0.5 kilometers deep there were 12 parracks three and four stories high; beyond these were about thirty storage buildings which were destroyed during World Var II and rebuilt in 1949.
- 2. In the summer of 1952 three infantry regiments and one heavy mortar unit moved into these barracks. 2/ The garrison commander was Aleksy Siemionov, a Bussian officer. One of the infantry regiments, the Illth, was commanded by Colonel Alfred Kuczynski.
- 3. A KBU unit of company strength stationed near the Zambrow garrison was used to guard an unidentified installation somewhere between Laskowiec and Dlugoborz, an area near Zambrow. A second company of KBW, stationed in Mazowiec, was charged with guarding an unidentified installation on the outskirts of hazowiec. Another company of KBW guards, also stationed in Mazowiec, was placed at the disposal of the UB; it was used to combat partisans, known as Huzar's Croup, who were active in the area.

1 /	Comment. See attached sketch.	25X
2 /	Corment. It is not clear from the text which group of barracks is meant. Presumably meant those on the left side of the road.	25X1
